Spend Afternoon Viewing Battlefields Around Petersburg and Return to Richmond.

VIOLATING THE GAME LAWS

Reported That Offending Huntsmen May Be Prosecuted. Others News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, Va., October 16.—A large party of distinguished Brooklynites, about seventy in number, including Judge William Gaynor, of the Supreme Court of New York, who attended the Brooklyn Day exercises at the Jamestown Exposition yesterday, arrived here from Richmond on the Seaboard Air Line Railway at half past 3 o'clock this afternoon, and after riding to the terminus of the Blandford car line, drove to the battlefield of the Crater, accompanied by Captain Carter R. Bishop, adjutant of A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans, and Battlefield Guide C. W. Carter. The party spent some time at the scene of the famous fight, Captain Bishop explaining the relative positions of the Federal and Confederate troops and showing the many points of interest on the field, in which the visitors took a lively interest. The party returned to Richmond about 6 o'clock.

To Hear Trinit Case.
The October term of the Hustings Court begins to-morrow, with Judge J. M. Mullen presiding. Counsel for the much discussed negro preacher, Eli Tarr, whose recent trial before a jury in the Hustings Court on the charge of assaulting with a pistol J. H. Mason, colored, the clerk of the Harrison Street Baptist Church, resulted in a verdict of guilty, with a six months' jail sentence attached, will to-morrow argue their motion for a new trial.

Huntsmen are said to be violating the game laws by killing partridges now, and it is reported that several parties are to be prosecuted on that charge.

"Wise Talks by the Office Boy"

I see the Pullman Company is trying to discourage the practice of throwing rice and confetti after bridal couples as they are leaving on their honeymoon. I think it would be a good stunt if some one were to set the style of throwing shoes, slippers, neckwear, gloves and such like at honeymoon parties. I know it wouldn't litter up the cars half so much, and then the bride and groom would be worth something, and if they got the kind of shoes, neckwear, gloves, etc., that we sell at this store the sentiment would still be there with the act, and good luck would follow the bride and groom. I think I'll talk to the Pullman Palace Car people about this. Meanwhile, how are you off for shoes?

Senatorship between Senator H. O. Kerns, who is standing for re-election, and Major H. A. Edmondson is waxing warm.
Early in the campaign they had three joint discussions, but lately each is running things separately.
Major Edmondson spoke to good-sized crowds last Friday at Delila, Saturday at Mt. Carmel, and that night at Altam. He is being helped in his campaign by Colonel John S. Cunningham, of North Carolina, and Samuel L. Adams, Esq., a member of the Halifax bar. They speak next Friday at Cluster Springs, and Saturday at Virginia.
Both candidates are men of ability and character, and the partisans of each are working hard.
For the Legislature Hon. Joseph Stebbins, Jr., will doubtless be chosen, as one of the members while Messrs. T. E. Dickinson and John W. Hedges are contesting for the other seat.

NEW YORK MEN KILL WILDCAT

HOT SPRINGS, VA., October 16.—Two New York men had an exciting walk up Virginia Mountain yesterday that they will not soon forget. The path is very steep and stony, but Mr. James L. Morgan and Mr. James T. Conway had heard of the beautiful scenery to be viewed at the top, and with heavy walking sticks made their way up.
When near the highest point they stopped for a time and found that the slight was fully up to their expectations. Mr. Conway heard a movement directly over his head, and looking up, saw a wildcat glaring at them.
Both he and Mr. Morgan hesitated a moment, uncertain whether to fight or run, when the latter remembered that he had a revolver in his pocket, and fired four shots before the wildcat fell. It is the first one that has been seen here in some time.

LADIES ATTACKED WHILE WALKING

Mrs. Ferrell and Daughter, of Danville, Have Frightful Experience With Negro.

SEVERAL ARRESTS ARE MADE

None of Those Caught Are Identified, but Two Are Taken to Lynchburg Jail.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, Va., October 16.—Up to a late hour to-night nothing has been learned as to the identification of the negro who attacked Mrs. John W. Ferrell with the intent of a criminal assault. All day long the police have been on a search for the criminal, several negroes have been arrested, and two were sent off to Lynchburg for safekeeping, although neither was identified as the right party.
All through the night time the town has been quiet, and there has been no sign of a lynching taking place, even if the negro had been captured, although the police were going to take no chances.

Mrs. Ferrell was on the streets to-day, looking very well after the terrible ordeal and she evidently showed great recuperating faculties, as she showed no signs of nervousness or of a general breakdown. Her seventeen-year-old daughter also displayed great presence of mind, and was with her mother all during the day.

Attacked by Negro.
The crime occurred yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock at Mountain View, the new suburb in the West End.

About 5:30 o'clock Mrs. Ferrell, together with her daughter, left her home on West Main Street for a walk, and decided to stroll about the Mountain View property. They proceeded for about half a mile down the grand old sidewalk unharmed, and were almost ready to return home when suddenly the negro approached from behind, and before they knew it seized the pair, who were walking arm in arm, and grabbing hold of Mrs. Ferrell's wrist, he pulled her off. He grabbed her around the neck, threw her to the ground and began to choke her. Mrs. Ferrell nor her daughter heard the negro approach, being nude and making no noise. When the attack was made they were for a moment dazed, but Mrs. Ferrell quickly rallied and fought the negro with all of her power, striking him in the face with her hands, which, however, were gloved, and he released her. She then grabbed her daughter and began to heat upon his back with her hands, while both ladies screamed for help at the top of their voices. The noise finally seemed to disconcert and frighten the negro, and he released his hold on Mrs. Ferrell, and getting up, ran down the road and disappeared into the woods. Bloodhounds arrived this morning, and were put on the trail, but seemed unable to follow it.

The negro has been well described by Mrs. Ferrell and her daughter. They stated that he was a good-sized negro, ginger cake color, with bushy hair and very Indian-like appearance. He was entirely nude. Last night three negro suspects were arrested and placed in jail. Others were arrested to-day and taken before Mrs. Ferrell, but she failed to identify them. Three now under arrest will probably be taken before the lady in the morning.
All day the negroes of the city have been discussing the matter, and it appears that they are a seditious to the criminal to be caught as the white people. This is the first crime of its kind to happen in this city, and the people are greatly aroused, but show the utmost coolness.

NEW PASTOR ENTERS UPON HIS WORK

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHLAND, Va., October 16.—The Baptist Church, since the retirement of Rev. Dr. R. H. Pitt, has been without a regular pastor until Sunday, when, before a large congregation, Rev. J. T. Lawless was duly installed. This gentleman comes from Battery Park, Isle of Wight county, to Ashland, and with his family, will reside in the dwelling next to the parsonage. At the services on Sunday, which were conducted by Rev. Dr. R. H. Pitt, Dr. Lawless accepted the charge in a short address, which was very pleasing to his hearers. Short talks were made by Dr. Pitt, Rev. W. H. Whitsett of the Richmond College, for the denomination in the State, and by Rev. J. William Jones to the members of the Ashland Church.

In the afternoon a union meeting to greet the new pastor was held, at which the several churches were represented as follows: Presbyterian, Rev. Dr. Lapsley; Methodist, Rev. Ernest Stevens; Christian, Mr. Carter; White, Episcopal, Rev. Dr. Coleman; Growth, Wesley Baptist Church, Rev. H. L. Quarles; and Randolph-Macon College, President R. E. Blackwell. These gentlemen spoke words of greeting, and made the meeting one long to be remembered by Dr. Lawless and those assembled.

Mr. Carter's Appreciation.
The Fire Company is in receipt of a letter through its chief, Gus F. Delaune, from Hill Carter, Esq., expressing his high appreciation of the service rendered at the fire on Sunday morning at his home. It encloses a check for $50, to be used as the company thinks best.

Town Council Meets.
The Town Council had a very busy session last night, at which the following matters were before it: A petition to the effect that "the Virginia Light and Power Company" have fully complied within the time specified with all requirements of the franchise which was granted by the town. This resolution was passed by a unanimous vote.

A letter from John D. Harris, general manager of the Ashland Sewer, Water and Gas Company, proposing to put in a system of fireplugs, was read, and for the present laid on the table. No figures were given, the company offering to give the same rates as offered by any two towns in the State which have a sewerage system. It is probable that several plugs will be put in in the business section of the town.
A meeting of the Ashland Fire Company was held called for Tuesday evening, October 23d, at 8:15 o'clock. The company has a very good engine, but it is hardly large and modern enough for the requirements of a growing town. It is very probable plans will be mapped out by which a larger one will be purchased. All descriptions of property-holders, and no doubt several hundred dollars will be raised.
